“That mankind has latent possibilities goes without argument and that there is a limit to the ability of the mind is unthinkable. What man imagines he can do, that he can do. To allow the imagination to drift in daydreams never brings anything to pass. Ideas must be worked up into living, breathing, thinking things.” ~ Charles Fillmore, Christian Healing

“You are never too old to start over. Every day is a chance to make changes to create the life we want.” ~ Karon Waddell

“Let go of yesterday. Let today be a new beginning and be the best that you can, and you’ll get to where God wants you to be.” ~ Joel Osteen

Partners in Imagining the Best,

I laid my roll of craft paper on our living room floor to begin my American History project. My colored pencils at my side, I purposely located my work area in front of the French doors so I could be in light and look at my mom’s flourishing flower garden. I needed big-time inspiration. On my haunches, drawing a simple scene to match the historical period I was depicting, my mom came by and suggested that I should study art. My reply to her suggestion, “I’m not good at it and I couldn’t make any money doing it.”

That was pure contempt before investigation. I didn’t know it then but I do now. New beginnings feed the soul and expand consciousness and capacities. The lynchpin in all that is Divine Imagination. Other of our powers are essential on the journey to maximizing the gifts God planted in our being—and the life we’ve been given. Faith feeds your imagination and is essential because there are always pitfalls to be overcome along the way. Faith and Wisdom direct you into next steps and Strength sustains your movement.

Albert Einstein said of imagination, “Imagination is more important than knowledge. Imagination is the language of the soul. Pay attention to your imagination and you will discover all you need to be fulfilled.” This month we put a focus on the gift of imagination, our awakened and developed capacity to create a beautiful, meaningful and fulfilling life.

Let me just add a conclusion I’ve come to. That is, God’s Will awakens your passion. Your imagination ignites with visions of possibilities, of new beginnings, of peeks at new horizons to lure your soul and empower your successful pursuit of them.

Let’s get into it.

With Love,

Rev. Sharon
